

Waking Up With You

From the album "Pocket Change" by Berkley Hart Written by Calman Hart

I'll roll up the window shade and let in the light as shadows of love we made fade with the night
oh I love I love wakin' up with you

I love how the pillowcase fans out your hair so it brushes against my face in the cool morning air

sometimes I watch you sleep beneath the sunrise and I know if I kiss your cheek you'll open your eyes

yeah I love I love wakin' up with you
